

Nobody even noticed , I saw them standing right there.
Kinda thought they might care.
But I had my hopes too high there.

I stood upfront, hoping that they'd notice.
But they saw me standing right there.
Kinda thought they might care.
But I had my hopes too high there.
And they left me over-thinking there.

Nobody even noticed, I'm hoping that they just might care.

If I had to let them know there.
I wonder what they'd say there.

If they knew what their words would mean there.
Would they change what they'd wanna say there?
